Three idioms and proverbs

Task 01

6 different forms of address

a) Your highness

b) Honey

c) Your honour

d) Mr, Mrs

e) Ladies and gentlemen

f) Sir, ma'am

a) Your highness –used at the royal family when you meet with the king

b) Honey –mostly used at home or in the family

c) Your honour-at court when you want authority to talk

d) Mr, Mrs-at work most of the time when you want to ask or start conversation with boss or manager

e) Ladies and gentlemen-meetings or classrooms mostly when a person want to announce or say something

f) Sir, ma'am-mostly used for people you don't know

Your Highness-this kind of addressing mostly is for specific person from a royal family (king) this address doesn't affect age only gender and the status of the person only.

Honey -this kind of address doesn't affect age that much because most of the time is used at home either couples and sometimes even children at home you can address them in that way and it doesn't affect the gender of the person.

Your Honour – this addressing is only for specific person with a specific age of the profession of magistrate in court it doesn't affect gender of the person.

Mr, Mrs –is a professional way of addressing either a boss or manager at work it doesn't affect age or gender but it affects the status of that person.

Ladies and gentlemen- is a way of addressing either classmates or group of people at the meeting it doesn't have a specific age, gender or status it accommodate everyone.

f) sir, ma'am-this kind of addressing doesn't affect age or status it mostly a way of addressing people you don't know e.g. at the bus or any transportation worker who is not wearing name tag you don't have to say bus driver or taxi driver you can always address them as sir or ma'am.

Two experiences

- a) First experience there was a meeting at the royal family where the king was addressing the youth of our community about the bursaries and internships that the royal family wanted to give the youth of the community, then i raised a hand to ask a question then i said to the king "Mr king "instate of your highness then people laughed that was so embarrassing and uncomfortable.
- b) Once been asked that I'm a Mr or Mrs I felt uncomfortable, because I felt like I look more of a man than woman.

Task 02

3 proverbs and idioms in sepedi

a) Kgomo gotsoga yeo etetsosang

- The cow wake it self
- In life you must work hard to be successful

b) Mosadi oswara thipa kabogaleng

- Women hold a knife on the sharp side
- In life you must always be patient no matter how hard it is.

c) Mogwera wa tshwene oja se tshwene ese jang

- A monkeys friend eat what the other monkey is eating
- If you become a friend with someone from poor background don't
- underestimate him or her but respect and appreciate them.
